

100 Italian and Egyptian
researchers exchanging ideas

Renewable energies and environment

Rational use of water resources, including water treatment and desalination

Agro-food sciences and agricultural biotechnologies

Health, life sciences and medical
biotechnologies

Nanotechnologies, materials sciences, smart and innovative textiles

Technologies applied to cultural heritage

Remote sensing, space sciences and geophysics

Basic sciences

Consiglio Nazionale
delle Ricerche

Museo Egizio
CNR Turin Research Area
Turin Historic Cafés

Supported by

INTESA  SANPAOLO

MUSEO
EGIZIO

CITTÀ DI TORINO

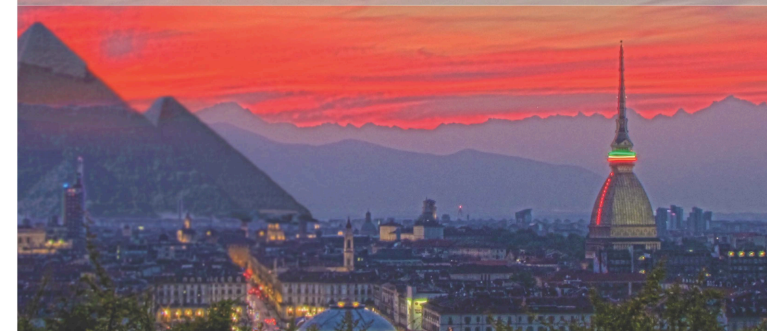

Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche
Ufficio Relazioni Internazionali
Email: relint@cnr.it
Segreteria: Rita Carbonetti rita.carbonetti@cnr.it 06 49932057

Graphics by EXX

Egyptian-Italian Workshop on Bilateral Scientific Collaboration

Turin, Italy, 15-16 June 2015

June 15th, Egyptian Museum, Turin

11:00 Opening Session

- Piero Fassino, Mayor of Turin
- Evelina Christillin, President of Museo Egizio
- Luigi Nicolais, President of National Research Council of Italy
- Gian Maria Gros-Pietro, Chairman Management Board Intesa Sanpaolo
- Gihane Zaki, Director of the Egyptian Academy in Rome
- Andrea Meloni, Director-General for the Promotion of the Country-System, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation
- Sherif Hammad, Minister of Scientific Research, Egypt
- Stefania Giannini, Minister of Education, University and Research, Italy

12:30 Lunch Break

14:15 Musea and Research

- Christian Greco, Director of Museo Egizio, in collaboration with Daniele Malfitana, Director, and Francesco Gabellone, Researcher, Institute for Archeological and Monumental Heritage IBAM CNR, Italy
- Mahmoud El-Halwagy, Director of the Egyptian Museum of Cairo
- Tarek Sayed Tawfik, Director of the Grand Egyptian Museum Project

14:45 Bilateral Scientific Cooperation

- Andrea Sartori, Cultural Development Manager – Goppion S.p.A.
- Gianmaria Ajani, Rector of the University of Turin, Italy
- Yasser Refaat Abdelfattah, Secretary General of the Supreme Council for Research Centers and Institutes, Ministry of Scientific Research, Egypt
- Marco Gilli, Rector of the Polytechnic of Turin, Italy
- Zeinab El Sadr, Director of the Research, Development and Innovation Program, Ministry of Scientific Research, Egypt
- Secondo Rolfo, President of CNR Research Area of Turin and Director of the Institute on Sustainable Economic Growth – IRCrES CNR, Italy
- Ashraf Shaalan, President of the National Research Center of Egypt

16:45 Coffee break

17:15 Open discussion

Discussion leaders: Christian Greco, Director of Museo Egizio, Yasser Refaat Abdelfattah, Secretary General of the Supreme Council for Research Centers and Institutes, Ministry of Scientific Research, Egypt and Franco Porcelli, Scientific Advisor, Embassy of Italy in Egypt

18:30 Closing

19:30 Dinner – Palazzo Chiabrese

June 16th, Morning, Various Locations, Historical Cafes in Central Turin

9:00 - 13:00

R-to-R sessions (the equivalent of B-to-B for research networking) Six parallel sessions in six charming cafés of Turin. The thematic areas are:

- Renewable energies and environment;
- Agro-food sciences, agricultural biotechnologies, rational use of water resources
- Health, life sciences and medical biotechnologies;
- Nanotechnologies, materials sciences, smart and innovative textiles;
- Technologies applied to cultural heritage;
- Remote sensing, space sciences, geophysics, basic sciences

11:30 - 13:00

Science Café at the Circolo dei Lettori, Palazzo Graneri della Rocca, on “New trends on Museum Management and Research”

13:00 Closing of the R-to-R session, transfer to CNR Research Area of Turin

June 16th, Afternoon, CNR Research Area of Turin

13:30 Lunch

15:00 Visit of CNR Research Area

16:30 Plenary sessions: open discussion

Discussion leaders: Hazem Mansour, Assistant to the Minister of Scientific Research, Giuseppina Capriotti, Institute for Ancient Mediterranean Studies ISMA – CNR, and Franco Porcelli, Embassy of Italy in Egypt

18:00 End of Workshop

19:30 Visit of Castello del Valentino – Dinner followed by a musical performance by the Poly-Ethnic Choir (Politecnico di Torino)